PREFACE

This index to the first thirty volumes of the Rhodes-Livingstone Journal is presented in response to numerous requests, and it is intended in the future to publish similar indices every five years covering each series of ten volumes.

In preparing this index, we have divided it into four sections: Author Index; Peoples, Tribes and Languages Index; Subject Index; Review Index. We trust that in this way we have been able to provide a simple and convenient form of reference to the articles and reviews which have appeared in the Journal.
